Property Description

A brilliant detached house with superb accommodation, totally re-designed to create a wonderful coastal home. Enjoying panoramic views from the living area and the excellent outdoors entertaining area...

This carefully planned home has exceptionally comfortable 3 bedroom / 4 bathroom accommodation within the 350 sqm of covered area. The majority of the ground floor is one superb open plan living space! The master suite with huge balcony is on the first floor, where the 2 further bedrooms with private facilities are on the lower ground floor.

The property has a large private swimming pool with infinity / overflow side, this positioned with a large pergola and barbeque, with a stunning sea view behind, genuinely makes this a superior property.

Standing within 2,700 sqm of gardens, the house enjoys a tremendous degree of privacy, space and seclusion. You have a long sweeping driveway leading to the house, an integral garage, plenty of parking and space for garaging, stables, workshops etc. One of the main benefits is the number of mature, established trees which surround the plot.

Located just a few hundred meters from the sea in the 'Sea Caves' area of Paphos, a prestigious address which incorporates the rugged and beautiful coastline between Coral Bay and Saint Georges. All in the Paphos district, on the West coast of Cyprus.

You are within an easy drive of all amenities, the main town is 15 minutes and Paphos International Airport is approximately 30 minutes.

This exceptional residence has been remodeled to create a coastal property which truly exceeds today's standards, with many additional features. This mature established property which is under going total renovation and refurbishment, including new wiring, plumbing, roof, floors, tiling, kitchen, bathrooms – virtually everything has been replaced and renewed to the highest quality. The finishing touches and colour scheme will be fully customizable and chosen by the fortunate buyer of the house.

This particular property truly is an executive home, whether as a main residence or an executive holiday home – most people will be pleasantly surprised upon viewing.

If you are looking for an impressive property and prime location, you must arrange to visit this house.
